TOOLS FOR REDUCING RISK

January 20, 2022 Gaining Control of Slips, Trips and Falls

Which claims top the list at your organization? According to industry reports, 25% of all reported general industry injuries are attributed to slips, trips and falls. This presentation will focus on the why and where they most occur and how to gain better control of reducing the exposure. We will have a few resources to aid with implementing a program. You won't want to miss this one!

February 17, 2022 Transitional Duty and Return to Work

Management of workers' compensation and liability claims help reduce and contain cost to the organization. Learn how to use management tools and guidelines to help bring an injured employee back to work quickly, reduce the risk of increasing claim severity, and help protect the organization's bottom line.

March 17, 2022 Reducing Frequency of Strains and Sprains

Material handling, computer workstations, and housekeeping. What do these tasks have in common? Strains and sprains injuries. This presentation will offer practical guidance on how to tackle this common workplace injury.

April 21, 2022 Keeping Your Fleet Safe on the Road

How can we manage our vehicle safety program? Are there tools to help with preventing accidents and injuries? We will provide you with the foundation of a safety program and tools to maintain it.

May 19, 2022 Cyber – This emerging risk is one that is continually evolving. Please check back with us as we will announce the focus of this presentation at a later date.

COMPLIANCE TOOLS

June 16, 2022 Common OSHA Findings and Targeted Inspections

Join this session to learn about why OSHA would come to your location for an inspection and the most common violations found. We'll provide tools to better equip you.

July 21, 2022 Developing a Self-Inspection Program That Fits Your Organization

Just like there is no "one size fits all" safety program, inspection programs alike must be customized. We'll focus on developing, implementing, and evaluating internal self-inspection and audit programs for your organization.

August 18, 2022 Q&A Session: Retail Operations

We will be focusing on providing you with guidance on managing risk at multi-faceted retail operations.

September 15, 2022 Cyber – In this constantly changing cyber environment, risks to organizations and clients are high. We will announce the details of this webinar at a later date.

EMERGING RISKS

October 20, 2022 New Technology, Cannabis in the Workplace: Tools to Help you Manage

As states continue to legalize cannabis use, and recreational use increases, it has become more difficult to manage safety in the workplace. What solutions are available to mitigate this exposure, particularly in high-risk jobs? We'll share new technology you'll want to consider.

November 17, 2022 Human Trafficking

This topic has come to the forefront of tribes and tribal hospitality in recent years as it has become a growing epidemic. We'll provide some insight on myths, signs and guidance on how you can help combat this.

December 15, 2022 Cyber – Details outlining the focus for this presentation will be available at a later date. Check back with us.
